CITY COUNCIL HAS A BULL SESSION

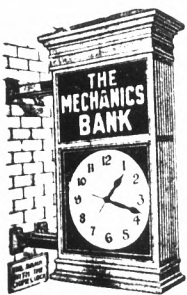

Big Sale of Government Food Starts Saturday at Fire Houses at 10 a. m. as per Figures Herewith—Aside From Discussion of This and Unimportant Routine There Was Little Doing.

The people of Richmond will again have an opportunity Saturday to buy Government foodstuffs at greatly reduced prices. A list of these goods follows, together with prices both by single price and the case and the amount to be sold to each person or family. The sale will start promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning and last until the stock is sold. Government foodstuffs, contrary to insistent reports, are fully up to the standard, and have given more than satisfaction to those fortunate enough to have been able to buy. It is a case of first come first served at these sales and the goods go fast, so it is necessary to be prompt in order to secure your quota and in passing we would advise you to have a ready reference list, have the cash ready and know just what goods you wish to buy. The matter of handling and caring for the goods after their arrival and up till the hour of sale has been left in the hands of the Auditor and Chief of Police.

START A CHECKING ACCOUNT

MECHANICS' BANK
"At the Sign of the Clock"
Macdonald Avenue at Eighth Street

Everyone should have a checking account. It is convenient as well as practical to pay bills by check, thus avoiding the risk of carrying money, or leaving it home where it might be stolen. Then, too, it prevents any dispute as to whether you have paid a bill. It is the only way to obtain a receipt that you take no chance of losing. Whether the account is large or small the same courteous treatment is accorded all.

RAPID-FIRE REMARKS

Sometimes a fellow waves money by getting cold feet. Only a woman can see a baby's resemblance to anybody. Experts make about as many bum guesses as the rest of us. Should a grass widow marry a vegetarian? In an argument with the wife your part is to listen. With education you get $4 a day; without it, $8. And recent events prove that Ananias was a novice. Most everybody has lost weight except those who wanted to. Speaking of preparedness, why are we smokers always out of matches? A cheap man has many opportunities to show it, and always does. The only way for a prohib. to go on strike would be to get soused. Sometimes an auto thief gets stung on a second hand 4rd.

MISS HUTTON TO MARRY IRVIN BENNER

Miss Ethel Hutton of 1023 Nevada avenue will be married to Irvin Benner on November 23, at her home, by Rev. D. W. Calfee. After a short honeymoon the place of which is not yet determined, the young people will live with Mrs. Sarah E. Brown, the bride-to-be's mother. Miss Hutton was given a miscellaneous shower one day last week by about thirty of her friends from Richmond, Oakland and San Francisco. She received many beautiful and valuable presents. She is employed in the Can Department of the Standard Oil, and Benner is working for the same company.

GIRL BANDIT AND HER PAL CAPTURED

Man and Woman Holdups Who Robbed Richmond Photographer in Broad Daylight Saturday Captured in Oakland and Woman Confesses—She Is Irene Johnson, 23, and Both Are Bad.

Irene Johnson, 23, and Bert Garrett, 26, her male companion, will be arraigned before Police Judge Odell this morning and charged with the robbery of Virgil Reed, the Sixth street photographer, on Saturday afternoon, having taken $335 from him.

The two were captured in an Oakland cafe on Saturday night with the assistance of Mrs. Bessie Brown of 646 Haight street, who recognized on the girl some clothing that had been stolen from her home. Mrs. Brown also recognized Garrett as the man who tried to pick up an acquaintance with members of her family before this robbery through which she had lost $550 worth of her clothing.

Virgil Reed was also helpful in the identification of the pair, being positive that they were the two who held him up. He denied the claim of the girl that she was alone and that she pulled the gun on him, adding that she had come to his studio asking about pictures two weeks ago.

Miss Johnson claims to be the daughter of a prominent Oregon business man, and that she has been married once, but she refused to give the name of her former husband. She said that she was engaged to Garrett, that she robbed Reed alone to show Garrett that she was not yellow, and that she will marry him when she is freed. According to the police, Garrett has a prison record, and that both are wanted in several bay cities for various crimes.

Of the $335 taken from Reed, about $185 was returned to the police.

ANOTHER NOTE ON MURDERED WOMAN

A note received by Chief of Police Vollmer of Berkeley states that the murdered woman found in Franklin Canyon on the Richmond-Martinez road is Mrs. Holmes of Portland and that the remainder of the broken shovel would be found 200 yards from the scene of the tragedy.

Accompanying the note was a crudely drawn map pointing the way to the shovel. This was taken to the scene of the tragedy by Deputy Sheriff Joslin and the parts of the shovel were traced and found by its means.

All the officers who have worked on the case are satisfied that the body is that of a woman over forty years of age.

Larry Quimby of the Oakland store has been given charge of the Richmond store of Kohler & Chase for a few weeks during the absence of A. Dugas.

THE NEWS DOES JOB WORK.

PLUMB PLAN RALLY WEDNESDAY EVENING

Richmond will be well represented at the big railroad employees' rally at the Oakland Auditorium Wednesday evening in furtherance of the Plumb Plan for public ownership of the railroads. A large delegation of Santa Fe and Southern Pacific employees from this city will go to hear ex-Congressman Clarence Dill of Spokane who will be the principal speaker. The Plumb Plan League of Richmond voted at its regular meeting last night, to go in a body. The members will take the 6:53 p. m. train, No. 23, from the S. P. depot.

The local railroad brotherhoods expect to have the next speaker who tours the Coast for the public ownership movement to speak in Richmond.

ARTS CLUB HOLD GOOD MEETING

At an interesting meeting of the Arts Club last night, arrangements were made for an art exhibit to be held on December 15, all work to be in the hands of the committee by the 13th, the place not yet being settled.

Mrs. Billy Brown, Mrs. Charles Gibson and Sheldon Davis were named as a committee on dramatics. Mrs. A. W. Krundick, Mrs. Kate Smith and Miss Norah McNeill were named as a committee on literature. Miss McNeill was advised to choose a committee on a program, one member being from each committee and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham was requested to select her own committee on music.

A letter from the Community Service congratulating the club on its formation and asking it to collaborate with the program of that body in helping out the good of the community was filed without action.

L. M. Fowler exhibited a number of his pictures and each member of the club present contributed a story or a recitation.

JUDGE ODELL FINES FOUR $10 EACH

Judge Odell seemed fond of fining prisoners $10 yesterday, all those appearing before him being given a fine of that amount.

W. H. Phil, Frank Smith and John Slagern plead guilty to a charge of vagrancy and were floated out of town.

D. Lagruppa acknowledged that he had been exceeding the speed limit and took the consequences.

SHOOT TO KILL S. F. POLICE ORDER

Drastic Action Found Necessary For Auto Thieves and Murderers Around Bay Region—Law Courts Turn Them Loose and So Police Will "Shoot to Kill."

"Shoot to kill. Investigate afterwards."

These orders were issued to his men yesterday by Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson of San Francisco as a result of the murder of Detective Antonio Schoombs, by two suspected automobile bandits whom he had attempted to arrest as they were moving down down Eddy street, near Market, in a stolen automobile Sunday night.

That one of the bandits may have been wounded by Schoombs as he stood on the running board of their machine was believed possible by the police today when blood was found on the seat of the car, which was abandoned after the crime at Scott and Sutter streets. Three army overcoats were found in the abandoned automobile.

Practically the entire detective force was working today in an effort to apprehend the slayers, who are believed to have been responsible for the murder of Louis Walter, grocer, in his store at California and Divisadero streets, Thursday night, and scores of other holdups and robberies.

MATHESON AROUSED

Aroused by the loss of one of his most valued men, Captain Matheson issued strict orders to members of the department and in particular those detailed to the special automobile squad.

Matheson said: "Since I have been in the detective bureau scores of automobile thieves have been arrested, and out of that number only four have been sent to prison. The cold blooded murder of Antonio Schoombs last night has convinced me that drastic action is necessary. Hereafter my instructions will be to shoot first any one found occupying a stolen automobile, and to investigate afterward. A lesson is needed."

SEVEN MEN IN ROUNDUPS

Seven men had been rounded up for question by the police today as a result of last night's murder. The machine used by the slayers was stolen Saturday night from Charles Shirey, 4836 Geary street, according to the police.

Accounts of the shooting of Schoombs by witnesses vary. The fact that the detective's pistol was missing, when his body was recovered from the street where it had fallen, leads the police to believe it possible that he was shot with his own pistol after one of the men had snatched it from his hand.

FIRE DEPARTMENT GOES OUT ON TWO CALLS

Hose Company No. 4 responded to a call to a fire at Stege Junction on yesterday afternoon, where some burning grass was extinguished.

Two calls yesterday afternoon brought out all the department to another grass fire in the yard of a vacant house at Ninth and Bissell. Slight damage was done to the house and the fence.

A large red touring car held up the procession of automobiles on the State Highway Sunday afternoon by stopping suddenly in front of the Belding store. Four cars that were following did not see the stop signal and they collided with one another with considerable damage to fenders, headlights, etc.

SENATORIAL FIDDLING

It would profoundly shock a number of our Senators if they were told that they are among the most potent causes contributing to the spread of Bolshevism in the United States. Yet it would be nothing more than the literal truth. The enemies of orderly government are not merely those who openly declaim against it. Equally dangerous are those who bring national institutions into disrepute by an utter failure to grasp the responsibilities imposed upon them as the active agents of such institutions. Representative government is the foundation of the American democracy, and representatives in Congress who put their personal prejudices and petty bitterness above their national duty are striking at the foundations of government just as much as the most blatant anarchist.—R. A. Crothers, editorial in Bulletin.

ONE MINUTE GIRLS WILL HOLD JINKS

A girls jinks will be the form of amusement taken by the One Minute Girls at their meeting next Monday night, the entertainment to be furnished by five groups of girls of which the following are the captains: Misses Viva Miller, Helen Steen, Myrtle Best, Nellie Parlier and Jessie Merritt.

Each group is planning a special stunt and a great variety of costumes is to brighten the clubroom, to which girls alone will be admitted.

Ten new members were admitted and serious discussion was held on the subject of the drive for newspapers to raise the money necessary for paying for gymnasium instruction.

RICHMOND CLUB CHILDREN PERFORM

Children's Day was observed at the Richmond Club yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. H. A. Stiver in the chair. Because of illness in the families of a number of the children of the club, the program was very much abbreviated. Those who appeared were:

Miss Peterson, instrumental solo. Wilma Grace Milnes, dance. Elizabeth Stiver, instrumental solo.

Frances Stiver, song. Children's day is an annual affair with the club, the program being confined to numbers given by children of the members.

Miss Edith Pickett has returned from a prolonged stay with her parents in Virginia and is again at her place in the public library.

Officer McCandless has returned from two weeks in the San Joaquin Valley, where he visited Fresno and Hanford.

ALL EAST BAY ASKED TO JOIN

League of Americans to Fight Anarchists Formed in Oakland-Alameda and Berkeley Already in and Richmond to be Invited to Participate in Keeping Lid on All Reds.

An East Bay movement was started Sunday which promises to make things very interesting for the Radical Reds of this section of the State. Alameda and Berkeley have already joined and Richmond and other East Bay cities will be asked to send delegates to the next meeting of the new "League of Americans." Following are the developments to date:

"League of Americans," said to have the solid backing of twelve leading civic organizations and lodges of Oakland, meets at Defenders' Club to perfect plans for aiding police.

League demands suppression of Oakland radical newspaper. Chief of Police Lynch investigates reported meeting at Loring Hall Saturday night, in spite of warnings, at which red-settled radicals hurled defiance at the authorities.

Chief, on hearing that reds planned gathering tomorrow night, sends out strict orders that it must be suppressed.

Socialists, whose scheduled meeting in Lincoln Hall last night was prevented, declare they will protest to high authorities.

Alleged plot of I. W. W. to mobilize in Berkeley stopped by prompt action of federal and local officers.

Plans started for patriotic propaganda in schools.

American Legion announces meeting for tonight to further its drive against the reds. Gathering will be in theatre of municipal auditorium.

TSAR N. CALFEE COMES BACK TO RICHMOND

In order to make a home for his father, who is sorely in need of comfort since the death of his mother, Tsar N. Calfee has returned to Richmond with his wife and family and has re-opened his offices at Room 1, Millon building. He will live at the family home, 221 S. 24th Twenty-second street.

To do this for his father he has given up a successful practice in Seattle, a fact that indicates the esteem in which father Calfee is held by son, a feeling that is shared by the whole community.

MONEY ALL POWERFUL

Money has been all powerful a long way back into history, and before that its equivalent, and money and its equivalents are all powerful today. Its influence is the hardest thing to combat which Christianity has, or ever had.

A few days ago the Hearst string of newspapers came out in big editorials with screaming headlines, advising the Congress of the United States to "kill the whole treaty". Those were the exact words of the headings—"Kill The Whole Treaty."

A small coterie of senators are evidently of that same opinion, and have already just about killed it by talking it to death.

The Church all over the land has endorsed the treaty and the League of Nations.

The American Federation of Labor has endorsed it.

The women have endorsed it almost 100 per cent strong.

Right-minded, God-fearing, law-abiding, war-hating and peace-loving people everywhere have been almost unanimous in their endorsements, and if it was put to a vote probably 75 per cent of the people would vote for ratification.

Who is against it? Let us see.

Nearly all Germans, who spent millions in propaganda in this country before the war and are still at it, are against it.

All Bolsheviks and Anarchists, who are also spending millions from Russia and elsewhere in propaganda, are against it.

Every munition manufacturer—those who make cannon, guns and army supplies and who make powder and ball to kill people with, are against it, and they are millionaires and great on propaganda.

The builders of dreadnaughts and other implements of hell are all against the League of Nations, also.

That any senators or newspapers are influenced by any or all of these rich but baneful opponents of the peace league, we would not say, not having the proof at hand, but there is no law that we know of that prevents us from being like the sailor's parrot, which, it will be remembered, "didn't say much but kept up a devil of a thinking."

THE FOOD SPECULATOR

It does not seem possible to get the food speculator either by threats or moral suasion. You can't melt him by appealing on the basis of pity for the poor. It has always been held legally legitimate to buy and thing you want and hold it as long as you want to. He will insist on that legal right.

The government will simply have to do something, even if it cuts across some of the old economic theories. You can not allow people to starve while close at hand are locked granaries filled with food. They tried that thing in Russia, and the Czar was kicked out of the king row.

It has come to the point where the right of any man to lock up and refuse to distribute food needed for the life of the people, must be sharply limited. If the state can condemn land needed to build a railroad, it must have, or must be given, the right to condemn food needed for the people. And if it comes to that, no speculator need think he will get any fancy prices the hand owners have often secured from the railroads.

THE DEATH PENALTY

That some of the awful crimes committed ought to be punished by the death penalty seems right at first thought, not only as a just punishment to the perpetrator of the crime but to deter others from committing similar crimes, but at the same time when one comes to give it earnest and deep thought there is something very repellent about taking a human life by process of law or any other way. There is a great high power above all of us that should be considered in everything; a higher and greater power than we poor weak and erring mortals, and we doubt if that power would counsel us to slay a fellow man, legally or otherwise, under any circumstances. Christ advocated no such doctrine, yet murder and similar crimes surrounded Him even as they do us in these days, and He Himself was executed. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away," and we believe the taking away of human life is a prerogative not ours. Were we a judge on the bench or the governor of a state we would never sign a death warrant and issue a human soul out into an eternity which we know not of. And yet were a loved one of ours to be murdered as some young girls have been of late years by fiends in human shape, it is doubtful if we could stay our hand even long enough for the law to act. But that does not make it right. Two wrongs do not make a right. We are inclined to believe that if life imprisonment could be made to mean what it says it would answer the purpose about as well as the death penalty. We do not wish to be understood as having any sympathy for the criminal, for we have none, but the question is, have we the right to take away a human life and drive an unprepared soul out into the everlasting unknown eternity which contains for it and for all of us that of which we grope in utter darkness? Seems to us that solitary confinement for life is hard enough punishment to administer to anybody. There is no necessity of pardoning them out; that could be and should be done away with. Wall him up for life, yes; but kill him, no.

THINKOGRAPHS

The fact that Pocahontas was an Indian weakens those historical yarns about her beauty.

The wages paid harvest hands don't sound so large to a man who has tried to earn them.

Political promises are not the only ones broken with considerable regularity.

Some men can't speak in public while others find it so easy they can't stop.

Don't let hating your enemies interfere with your regular work, which is more important.

The chaperon has the most thankless job if she does her work well.

If you don't get along very well, it probably isn't for any lack of good advice.

Some of the world's greatest loafers posed as philosophers and got away with it.

If a man has nothing else but a long line of excuses, people will lose interest in his samples.

After a man begins to pay the bills it seems like about every other day is the first day of the month.

The man who is willing to tell all he knows, is likely to go further and guess at a good deal more.

That the constant drip of water will wear away a stone is true, but its a slow process. Muscle and a hammer will do it quicker.

Occasionally there is a bold man who starts an argument with his wife, but that is no sign he can stop it.

If a man isn't much of a mechanic, his wife will tell him of some other man who is always fixing up something around the house.

In Spain the women attending divine services wear black gowns and mantillas. Here they wear two scarlet feathers standing a foot above the brim of a toque of mustard-colored straw and gowns of prismatic hues.

Wonder why it is that the lady who still sharpens the butcher knife on the stovepipe or on the edge of a crock has the biggest heart and the gentlest hand.

While thousands of labor saving machines are being invented in all lines of business, we don't see why some one don't invent one to write these pesky editorials. The fish are biting mighty good now.

A newspaper, in speaking of a deceased citizen, said: "We knew him as old Ten Per Cent.—The more he had the less he spent—the more he got the less he lent—he's dead—we don't know where he went; but if his soul to heaven is sent—he'll own the harps and charge 'em rent."

DOROTHY GISH IS GOOD PEPPY POLLY

Suppose you loved someone very much, and you decided that the only obstacle between you and complete happiness was a lack of a marriage license? Then it would follow logically that you would talk to each other about it and when you both had agreed on the subject, probably one of you would lean over and the other would come half way at least and—well, you know how it would happen. And then think of someone opening the door suddenly and accusing you of not being exactly on the level!

That's one of the unusual situations in Dorothy Gish's new Paramount picture, "Peppy Polly," which will come to the Richmond Theatre today. Miss Gish is the girl and Richard Barthelmess is the boy, and the person who interrupts the scene is the matron of the reform school where Dorothy is being kept a prisoner. The support generally is highly satisfactory.

Beatrice Writes To Gera'dine

Gee Whiz, Geraldine, you should come out to this peppy town and get a job here like me.

You know I thought I was going to be lonesome here, after so many years in the dear old city, but the first thing I did was to drop into Beyers, and if there wasn't little old Frank slinging soda just the way he did before he went to war. He looked as large as life and twice as natural.

Me and a girl here named Julia had a peach of a time and then a pineapple delight, one right after the other, and if I shut my eyes I could well believe I was in the old town at the Cherry Blossom, specially as the Wurlitzer Pianino played Out Oul Marie just as jazzy as it does in Frisco.

Meet me again at Beyers, said Julia, as we parted, and she sure said a mouthful.

ours as ever,
BEATRICE.

Knights Of Pythias Visit Cal'and

Votaries A. M. Howes of Arapa Temple No. 83 and B. E. Lundson of Abu Zoid Temple No. 201, D. O. K. K., took a jolly party of Knights and Sisters of Pythias over to Oakland last night for initiation in the mysteries of California Santha No. 5, Nomads of Avrodaka. The class included Harry Yager, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bock, A. W. Moore, O. C. Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huebner, Margaret Fallon and Mr. and Mrs. John Opman.

In the eighth order, Margaret Huebner proved herself quite a "pinch-hitter" while Will Huebner and "Denny" Moore distinguished themselves as after dinner speakers at the banquet which followed. The next Ceremonial of the Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorassan will be held in Oakland on December 6th, and the last of the year will be held in Richmond on December 27th. Another Richmond class will be initiated in the Nomads on Monday evening, December 15th, at Pythian Castle in Oakland.

Women Organize To Fight H.C.L.

Oakland housewives organized yesterday to combat the high cost of living, meeting in the Oakland City Hall to discuss a program to meet the local situation in reducing to a normal or at least possible basis the necessary foodstuffs and to inaugurate an active campaign in protesting a continued rise in bread, eggs, butter and milk. The conference was but preliminary to a city-wide organization which will be effected among the housewives and purchasers of foodstuffs, similar to those already in operation in other California cities. "Bake your own bread" is a slogan which is designed to meet the rise in the price of breadstuffs.

Wives On Jury: Husbands Cook

Three Oakland husbands, after striving for three days to turn eggs into breakfasts and to pilot family brooms, have sent a hurried call to near and distant female relatives. Their wives are on a jury. Also, the jury is locked up. That's the reason.

Because Judge James G. Quinn decided that the trial of James McHugo charged of criminal syndicalism was of unusual importance, he ordered the jury detained. Five of the jurors are women. Two are widows and have no one worried over the Judge's forecast of a thirty-day trial.

Three days made too much for one of the husbands. He took off his wife's apron, locked the front door and went to a hotel.

SHIPYARDS TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

With the total registration of employees in bay shipyards rapidly approaching the 8000 mark, prospects were considered bright yesterday for a reopening of the yards soon after tomorrow as planned. The number is considerably below that of the employees who were at work when the strike was declared at the end of September, but the yard managers declare that the labor supply was then at its maximum and could have been considerably reduced without imperiling work in hand.

Displacement of contracts and other results of the strike, it is declared, renders it possible to open the yards with the supply of men that is now in sight.

Registration reopened this morning with 7157. The Sunday record of enrollments was 585, which was expected to be more than equaled, before tonight. According to Frank B. Drake, president of the California Retail Trades' Association, the men registering are thus classified: Mechanics, 3232; helpers 3525; laborers, 400. The registration of the Hanlon shipyard, which is not a member of the association, is not included.

City Council

The following additions to the personnel of the Fire Department were made by the Council under recommendation of the First Chief: R. A. Wells, appointed as captain at a salary of $155 per month; John F. Lathrop, as acting lieutenant, $145; S. G. Davidson, horseman, salary $135, and J. W. Oliver as relief man.

Permission was granted J. H. Minner to attend the convention of Pacific Coast Port Authorities at San Diego on December 2, 3 and 4.

The Harbor Commissioner reports the gross earnings of warehouse No. 1 for the month of October as $761.75.

City Engineer and Supt. of Streets report their expenditures as being $1700.

The fees collected by the poundmaster amounted to $25.05.

Balance in the City Treasury, according to Auditor's report, $62,758.09.

The Social Service Bureau reports as follows: Amount received $8500. Amount disbursed $7294. Families relieved 7. Persons relieved 22. Pieces of clothing distributed 61. Medicine purchased 65 cents.

The Council last night adopted an emergency ordinance limiting the speed of steam trains through the city to 15 miles per hour. This ordinance is intended to force the railroad companies to place guards or gates at their city crossing and thus protect human lives of which there has been quite a toll during the past few years. It is pointed out that a train going 15 miles per hour is at all times under the control of the engineer and greatly enhances the safety of persons crossing the tracks. The City Clerk will notify the companies at once and arrests will be made if the ordinance is broken. The Council is to be congratulated upon its prompt action in this matter.

SAVE YOUR PAPERS FOR MINUTE GIRLS

Ten tons of newspapers are delivered at Richmond homes every month. If every one were salvaged the saving would pay for physical education for three hundred young women of the city for six months.

Upon the assumption that one tenth of them are available the One Minute Girls of Community Service today sent an appeal to all householders to contribute them to the fund which will pay for the physical culture instructor who began the One Minute Girl classes last night at the Richmond clubhouse.

The membership of the One Minute Girls includes all sects, all creeds, several nationalities—and all are admissible—and the girls are organized for service to the community, but besides their direct service to the community the girls aim to make Richmond a better place to live in by conserving their health and building their strength to the end that they may be physically better able to answer the calls of the community.

If the newspaper drive on Saturday is successful the girls plan to obtain instructors in culture activities such as music, drama, short story writing, etc., and to give the community the benefit of their instruction by appearing at entertainments which will be free to the public.

The girls ask that each householder tie all clean newspapers in bundles and separately tie all magazines of the same grade as the Saturday Evening Post and leave on the curb Saturday morning next.

TAMALPAIS

Tamalpais—Mount of splendor!
We have seen you in November,
We have seen you by the light of Winter moon.
We have scaled your wind-swept ridges,
Followed trail o'er narrow bridges,
And laid down to rest where redwoods crouch.
We have seen you in the morning
Just before the day's bright dawning.
We have heard the wonderful calling of the dove.
We have seen the bright stars gleaming,
Hung like fairy lanterns beaming,
In the spacious vault of Heaven high above.
We have seen the new day waking,
Seen the scarlet sunbeams breaking
O'er the fog-sea, snugly nestled far below.
We have heard with hearts a-throbbing
We have heard with hearts a-throbbing
The sweet singing of the Robin,
As the breezes swung the tree tops to and fro.
Tamalpais, Mount of splendor!
We shall ever more remember
The wonder scenes our eyes have viewed today:
We might tramp the wide world o'er
Follow trails from shore to shore,
But these memories shall never fade away.
